re Caranfil

5. Grigore Gafencu is much cultivated by Caranfil. Gafencu is able to introduce him into many circles to which his entrance would otherwise be impossible. He considers that the authority of General Nicolae Radescu can impose him on the so-called "political group." Caranfil maintains contact with Radescu and informs him concerning events, in Europe. Caranfil's ambition can be seen in a remark he made to source to the effect that he will be needed sometime in the future since he is the only man who could efficiently run the Ministry of Transportation or the Ministry of Industry. He wishes his activity in the non-political field to secure for him Optional moral and material credit from such Rumanians as Radescu and Malaxa and among foreigners. . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
